

Uncle Sam

Our Uncle Sam has bought land at Pearl Harbor, and is just beginning to build a home for his family. It is time to do as Uncle does. Leasing and renting is good enough for cheap foreigners, weary Willies, landlords and the man with the moving van. BUT now is the time to fall in line with Uncle's good judgment. Buy a lot and build a home in COLLEGE HILLS. You buy the lot and we'll loan the money to build the home.

ST. LOUIS MINSTRELS READY FOR CURTAIN

Thursday night and a packed house will witness the St. Louis minstrels as Burnt Cork artists at the Hawaiian Opera House in what will be one of the best shows of the kind seen here for a long time. It will be a night when minstrelsy, mirth and song will reign supreme.

Besides a good chorus of forty lusty voices and splendid costuming, there will be some fine olio specialties, one of the best being a little sketch by two "Nipponized" American citizens. A moving picture specially deserves mention, so also James D. Dougherty's fine tenor voice in an illustrated song, together with the fancy dancing of beautiful children from Mrs. Mary Gunn's dancing class.

The visiting Santa Clara and Keio baseball teams will be the guests of the Saints for the evening and will occupy the two upper boxes, which will be appropriately decorated for the occasion. The box plan opens at Wall, Nichols Co. tomorrow morning.

PIRATE SMITH IS A MUCH WANTED MAN

A guard was at the gangway of the transport yesterday to see that Pirate Smith did not get aboard. To make sure a search of the steamer was made before departure. Up to a late hour last night no news of the missing man had been received at the camp and parties out all day on a still hunt had not reported sighting the fugitive.

THE EMPIRE.

Manager Tait at the Empire keeps up his reputation for being on the spot when a new film is to be sent out for exhibition. It would not be surprising if Mr. Werner of this theater, who is now at the Coast, would bring back the pictures of the latest Gans-Nelson fight. There will be some new pictures shown this week, and they are good ones.

THE CALIFORNIA.

Numerous changes in the reels of moving pictures is one of the features of the California, on Hotel street, opposite the Young. This place is growing in popularity owing to the character of the pictures and because they are shown with the least amount of vibration which so troubles the eyes. There will be two changes this week and a number of entirely new pictures shown.
